Take your morning tea and chairs and head down towards the river from the car park – there are some rather lovely gardens hidden away down below. The automatic toilet is straight down from the car park, slightly to the right, a bit hard to see through the trees.

TR into Kent Street and go down to the end to the car park and hopefully to a nice sunny picnic spot for lunch at the Kent Street Weir Park – crossed fingers.... ♀♂.

Hopefully I haven't lost any of you along the way!!
